"What a power you have of visualization. You remember how the doctor once questioned you about it, and you found out what a phenomenon you were in that direction. Is it so very strange to you now that that picture should have come up into your mind again when you were weak and nervous?"

The young wife looked at her husband, bewildered and wondering.

"I have got down a few notes, essentially free from technicalities, Mr. Maxey."

Lillard's pig tobsacco is creating a sensation with all smokers. It's "kimmie" aches of Lillard's tobacco. No other kind goes.

The Star Saloon having renewed its license for another year desires to say he will receive its customers with a warm welcome.

If we were to place some of our overcoats in our window you would break the glass to get them when you saw the price they are selling for—Sulzer's.

Either the late landslide or the presented cold snap has made more money in business. It's better than some come, so the merchants say. Let it revive and for God's sake don't stop it.

"Uncle" Billy Tindall, an old time Republican, was in town yesterday for the first time since that great event of November 6. He says every word now Republican from "beginning to end."

Mr. J. D. Brashear, from near Rome, was in the city yesterday. His daughter, Linnie, who has been here with a phoebe for eight weeks, is about well. Other cases in his neighborhood, he says are all improving.

Mr. Cornwell is now shipping from two to three cars a week of the famous Ashby quarry. He says it is equal to the Bedford stone, and that he expects to open up big in the spring. He is now working about forty men.

A hunting party composed of the following gentlemen: Mr. Ed M. Post and Mr. Colt, New York; Mr. Geo H.
Lampkin and Mr. Harry Winesinger, of Louisville, passed through town Saturday for Washington where they will spend a week or ten days hunting.

Mr. Henry Carman came very new being turned up one day last week, and was out in the woods hunting black birds and discovered that the fence which encloses the cornfield in the creek bottom was on fire, and in attempting to put it out her dress caught, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames. It was quick work and pure reason of mind that she saved herself. Her hands and arms were badly burned.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the worst pain.
It affords prompt relief and if used in time will often prevent a

Mr. C. M. McEllohan, Union Star, qualified as administrator of the late Martin McEllohan's estate, Irvington at Hardinsburg Monday.

Hose Morgan was re-elected Marshal of Stephentown by almost a unanimous vote. There were only four votes opposed against him in the town.

Boyd and Mattingly's saloons are both closed, their licenses having expired.
They have made application for renewal and will open up about Dec. 1.

Steve Hall is "on the rail" for the Cloverport Tobacco Works.
Next Monday night Brackenridge Lodge No. 61, K. of P., will elect officers for the incoming year.
The News is indebted to "Uncle" Chris Lowley and his excellent wife and housekeeper for a mighty good dinner last Saturday.

The K. P.'s will have a solo at their Castle Hall next Friday night. "Pomum and sweet-taters," turkey and oysters and like good things to eat, will be the order of the evening.

Geo. Livers, living near Guston, sold all of his stock and farming implements at public sale last Saturday. Everything went down low. Horses sold from $25 to $75 and his farm implements in proportion. He will move to Texas.

Mr. Geo. C. Patton went down to Owensboro Monday. Mr. Patton has his eye on the brick tract improvements down there and is looking over plans for a contract. If the brick industries of our town had a few more men like Mr. Patton the business wouldn't be a drag, like it has been for the past year.

Mrs. Lila Green's, Falls of Rough, this week.

Louisville Stock Market.
Louisville, Nov. 20, 1894.—Cattle—Fresh receipts 1200, on sale 1350 head.
Market dull and sluggish throughout the day at lower prices on all grades. Good may sell in pens today.

Hogs—Receipts 200 head, carried over from 1500, on sale today about 10,000.
Market opened up at 44 1/2 which price the bulk of hogs sold. Later on prices from other markets were more varying and all sold at the close at 45 to 46. Light Hogs were dull at quotations.
Good many left over unsold.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts 1002 head, market very low and hard to sell at any price.
DAN BROOKS.

A Farmer Killed in Davies County.
A shooting occurred near Rome Tuesday says the Owensboro Messenger in which two prominent farmers were involved. The news reached the city yesterday when Mr. McShane came in for a warrant charging Jay Morgan with shooting his way to kill Thomas Gillespie.

He stated that Morgan and Gillespie had a quarrel over some land belonging to Morgan, on which Gillespie held a mortgage. Morgan claimed to have paid Gillespie $2500, but Gillespie said he got judgment for $75 which was repaid Morgan.

Tuesday night Morgan called Gillespie to his front door, and at 10 o'clock, without warning fired two barrels of a shot gun at him. The shot scattered some, but most took effect in the right thigh. The bullet was unremoved and has pronounced Gillespie's wound fatal.

Morgan had not been arrested at 10 o'clock last night.

A BUREAU visitor from this city to Washington, D. C., says he saw a man make $15,000 in one day. He was pulling a lead prize in the Treasury department.

The right hand placed directly over ening power as the Royal.

BEWLEYVILLE.
This has been long killing week. The scarcity of corn makes the farmers in a hurry to get through with the job. We now have plenty, and rejoice.
Mr. G. Johnson has built a new barn.
Mr. John Cox has been very sick, but is improving.

Weather still dry and cold. The fields could not look worse in mid-winter.
Mr. Charley Paul has been visiting the Kincheloe family this week.

Mr. Hal Murray, of Cloverport, was in town Saturday.
George Drury and Blanche Jolly attended the Kincheloe-Henderson wedding at Webster Tuesday.

Tuesday evening after a short prayer and testimony meeting, the young folks sing again.

Wednesday several persons attended the dedication of St. Martin's church.
Among them we note Wade Drury, Hattie McGoy, Mary Paul, Hal Murray and Blanche Jolly. They reported a large crowd present.

Mr. Z. T. 8th shipped his hogs to Louisville Tuesday. He was just in time to get the benefit of the rain.

Minnie Ritchie, who has been quite sick, has recovered.
Miss Lillie Nunnally is spending a few days with Miss Lena Drury.

Pierce Harlaway has taken a literary turn of mind. His aspirations are doubtless due to the influence of his "best girl."

The Rev. Willett, who was to conduct a protracted meeting in the Baptist church, failing to get the help he desired, declined to come.

Mrs. Bell Drury has been spending a week or two with her mother. Mrs.
Drury is an invalid, and the blessings of mother's loving care and sympathy are very beneficial to her.

Sabbath school in the forenoon and Epworth League in the evening, November 18.

The election is well over and everybody has settled down to steady work.
What we can't help we have to endure, and so to those victorious we grant the privilege of seeing how very nicely and pleasantly they can wield the power so overwhelmingly placed in their hands. It is to be hoped that the Republicans will remember that they are Americans, and let patriotism and not party govern all their actions.

The fourth week in the Sabbath school lesson, Nov. 18, does not apply to the Bewleyville correspondent of the News, for though many say "nice things, yet all men do not speak well of Goldred."

GLENDANE.
Miss Carrie Owen is at this writing.
Dunk Powell spent last week visiting in Grayson county.

The third hunter has been abroad in the land since the 15th.

Mrs. Jesse L. Owen is visiting Mrs.
Kate Beatty near Irvington.
Sam Beavin has begun work on his new store house on Main street.

Mrs. Johnson Dean has recently returned from a visit in Louisville.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dean and Mrs. W.
R. Moorman have lately returned from Milwood.

Michael Whobery, Rock Vale, near Henderson, has been granted an increase of patents.

Brother Rutledge, Cloverport, was among the visitors at school since our last writing.

Miss Catherine Rhodes, of Owensboro, is here visiting her father, Mr. Cam Rhodes. She will remain till after X-mas.

The Baptist congregation at Goshen will give an entertainment about X-mas for the benefit of the church. Particulars next week.

Rev. Robertson took another carload of stock to Louisville Saturday. When it comes to trading, hustling or succeeding he has few equals.

Though badly defeated, we're Democrats yet, and are thankful that we have Carville for Constance, and Cleveland for President. We people in the Rock Vale district have Democrats to fill our lowest and highest offices, but there's a yawning gap between them where members of our party are scarce.

The Glendane Gap has secured Dr.
Dempsler, Rock Vale, to deliver a series of lectures. The second was given Friday afternoon to a crowded house of students, patrons and others interested.

The next engagement is for Friday afternoon of this week when dissection will be treated. The Doctor's recognized ability coupled with his clear explanations, renders his services extremely valuable.

A special car ran from here to Jolly's station on the night of the 11th inst., to convey the Rev. Mr. Westhead to this place. The occasion was the marriage of Mr. John W. Howard to Miss Cynthia Powell. In the parlor of the Mattingly Hotel this happy couple were surrounded by man and wife. A large number of friends assembled to witness the event and wish them happiness throughout their married life. Our correspondent was not present and cannot describe more fully. He only adds that their future troubles all be little ones.

Church News.
Rev. S. G. Shelby will preach at Holt's chapel next Sunday at 11 a. m.
Rev. Elliot, of State Evangelist of the Methodist church will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday night at 7 o'clock.

Epworth League services at the Methodist church next Sunday night at 6 o'clock.

There will be a business meeting of the Epworth League at the Methodist church to-night.

Regular prayer-meeting services at the Methodist church Thursday night. All are invited.

A big revival is going on in the colored Methodist church.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.
Miss Mollie Mingus, An Estimable Young Lady Burned to Death.

McGraw, Nov. 10.—Miss Mollie Mingus, one of our most estimable young ladies, met a horrible death last Tuesday while visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. Basham, West View. Miss Basham had gone to a spring some two hundred yards distant and while there she heard a scream from the house, and hurrying back, she was horror-stricken to find her niece enveloped in flames and rushing from room to room in a perfect frenzy of terror. Mrs. Basham used every means in her power to quench the flames, burning her own hands and arms badly, but all her efforts were in vain. Every vestige of clothing was burned from her body, and after lingering for two hours enduring untold agony, death finally released her from her sufferings. It is supposed that in Mrs. Basham's absence, Miss Mingus went into the kitchen and her clothing caught fire from the cooking stove. Our hearts were saddened by the news of her death, for we all loved her for her bright cheerful face and sweet disposition.
May God comfort the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters. One of our best loved girls is gone.

EKRON.
Geo. Miles, of Garrett, was in town Tuesday.

Born to the wife of R. A. Ensor a 9. pound girl, November 14.

Cap. A. E. Gueyly will leave in a few days for the south on business.

Mr. Blant Shacklett went to Louisville Wednesday with a carload of cattle.

Mr. Angus Ditchell, of the Star, was in town Thursday the guest of Z. T.
Cox.

Miss Kate Norton is having a neat cottage built on the west side of Main street.

Mr. J. D. Bahbabe, of the News, was a passenger on the east-bound train Wednesday.

Alex. Hamilton, of Big Spring, passed through town Thursday en route to Louisville.

Mrs. J. G. Shacklett, of Hill Grove, was in town Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives.

Miss Eva Richardson went to Louisville on the 12th to visit her brother Mr.
H. Richardson.

Ephraim Wimp went to Owensboro Thursday to visit his son and daughter who live there.

Miss Mattie E. Roberts went to Louisville Monday for an extended visit to friends and relatives.

Wm. Hill, of Garrett, passed through town Saturday en route to Jeffersonville to visit Mr. Sam Kendall.

Miss Lila Richardson, who has had a severe case of typhoid fever, was glad to see our streets Saturday.

Miss Julia Thomas, mother of Mrs. J.
D. Bahbabe, of the News, was a passenger on the east-bound train Wednesday.

Mr. J. T. Massey and Miss Mamie Daugherty attended the dance at the new Catholic church at Flinthey Tuesday.

Mrs. Phoebe Skillman and Mrs. Dr.
Henry Board, of Hardinsburg, arrived Friday to visit Dr. R. W. Warfield and family and other relatives.

The wedding bells again sound their sweetest chimes, telling us of another happy union to be in the persons of our most estimable young friends, Miss Mollie Basham and Samuel J. Brown, both of this place. They are to be united in the holy ties of matrimony on the 28th of November at 6 p. m. at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. N. Wildlight officiating. All their friends and relatives are cordially invited to witness the nuptial services. While we regret to see our jolly young friend quit our young society, we heartily congratulate them in their good fortune and extend to them our most heart-felt wishes for their future happiness.
